

Seminar on Legal and Tax implications of India to Germany

"Doing Successful Business in Germany"

On behalf of the German law firm KMO Kestler Mielert Otto, the Indo-German Chamber of Commerce organized a series of seminars on legal and tax implications of "Doing Successful Business in Germany". The seminars were held in New Delhi on 15th January, in Bangalore on 17th January & in Mumbai on 21st January, 2008.

The seminars were conducted by Hubertus Kestler, Attorney at Law & Managing Partner of KMO, Frankfurt, Germany. Mr. Kestler's expertise lies in Business Law, Capital Markets, Corporate Law, Mergers & Acquisitions, Private Equity. He is a Member of Supervisory Boards of various publicly listed and privately-owned joint stock corporations.

Mr. Kestler briefed on the various types and choices of Business in Germany, Corporate Foundation, German Labour Laws and Social Security Regulations and participation in German Companies. He gave practical advice and a field report on Indian companies doing business in Germany

Alexander Leoff, German Certified Auditor, US-CPA, Partner KMO, who's focus areas are international accounting (IFRS, US-GAAP), corporate consultancy, due diligence, audit of financial statements and consolidated financial statements as well as special audits gave an overview of the German Accounting and Taxation system. He spoke about accounting standards, individual income tax, corporation tax, value added tax, transfer price & other related topics.

A good number of participants from various companies participated in the seminars in

Hubertus Kestler, Attorney at Law & Managing Partner of KMO, Frankfurt (I) and Alexander Leoff, German Certified Auditor, US-CPA, Partner KMO

Mr. Kestler

Alexander Leoff

the three cities making it a huge success. The Seminar was useful in understanding the legal & tax implications of doing business in Germany, particularly for those who are keen on setting up an office in Germany in the near future.

About KMO

KMO consists of attorneys, notaries, tax consultants and certified auditors with the objective of providing competent legal and tax advice in all business and financial affairs through interdisciplinary cooperation with partners in their global network. More than 40 professionals and employees ensure highly efficient and consistent consulting services.

KMO advises clients from all sectors of industry, commercial and the services sector. Their competent international network ensures that they can support their clients with expert solutions for cross-border transactions and issues of international law and taxation. Members interested in knowing more about this topic can contact the speakers at the following address:

Hubertus Kestler/ Alexander Leoff
 KMO – Kestler Mielert Otto
 Attorneys. Notaries. Tax Advisers. Auditors.
 Wiesenau 36
 60323 Frankfurt am Main
 Germany
 T: + 49 (0) 69 97160 101
 F: + 49 (0) 69 97160 111
 Email: frankfurt@kmo-legal.de
 Website: www.kmo-legal.de

Members interested in obtaining a copy of the seminar material can contact:

Ms. Seema Kazi-Rangnekar
 Sr. Manager – German Trade & Events
 Tel: 0091-22-66652128
 Email: seema.rangnekar@indo-german.com

Ms. Prachi Deo
 Executive – German Trade & Events
 Tel: 0091-22-66652159
 Email : prachi.deo@indo-german.com